

MAHIDOL UNIVERSITY

Since 1888

Siriraj Scholarship for ASEAN Doctors at Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University
Bangkok, Thailand

Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University, arranged “The First ASEAN Deans’ Summit: Connecting ASEAN Medical Schools towards One Community” during 17 – 19 September 2012 at Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital.

“The First ASEAN Deans’ Summit: Connecting ASEAN Medical School towards One Community” has been arranged with the objectives to promote collaboration among leading medical schools in the ASEAN region to leverage medical education and health system towards international excellence and to be prepared to work as one community by 2015. Furthermore, Deans and Rectors of 10 ASEAN countries agreed to sign “Declaration of the Southeast Asian Medical Schools Network Initiative”. Therefore, Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, Mahidol University, initiated the declaration by providing scholarships for Doctors from Cambodia, LAO PDR, Myanmar, and Vietnam (CLMV) to train at Siriraj Hospital, this to provided a great opportunity to exchange experiences in educations, research, and public health with many International Medical Institutes, to strengthen and promote the network of medical school in the future.

Objectives

1. Providing an opportunity to Doctors from Cambodia, LAO PDR, Myanmar, and Vietnam (CLMV) which is the member of ASEAN community to attend International Short- Term Training Courses at Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital.
2. Exchanging experience and knowledge between Thai doctors and International doctors in ASEAN community
3. Promoting ASEAN collaboration network

Scholarship Details

1. This scholarship belongs to Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital, providing 10 scholarships to doctors in CLMV countries:
 - 1.1 Cambodia 2 scholarships
 - 1.2 Laos PDR 3 scholarships
 - 1.3 Myanmar 3 scholarships
 - 1.4 Vietnam 2 scholarships

2. The scholarship is provided for those who wish to attend International Short-Term Training Courses at Faculty of Medicine, Mahidol University, for a period of 3 months.
3. The scholarship will cover an allowance of 30,000 baht for a 3-month period and Siriraj dormitory.
4. Air fare, living expenses, health and liability insurance and all the other financial obligations are to be borne by each CLMV doctor.

Qualification of Applicants

1. Graduated with a medical school degree (MD or equivalent)
2. Must be a candidate from CLMV countries (Cambodia, Laos PDR, Myanmar, and Vietnam)
3. Have a good command of English language skills
4. Must be selected by his/her University, Ministry of Foreign Affairs , Ministry of Health and Embassy

Application Documents

1. Application form can be downloaded via: <http://www1.si.mahidol.ac.th/ircoe/>
2. Personal statement
3. Curriculum Vitae with a recent photo (not more than 6 months)
4. Certificate of Graduation with MD degree or equivalent
5. Recommendation letter from Dean or Director

Deadline

The application will be reviewed twice a year. Please submit the application form with the required documents prior to 31 October 2013 for the first round and 30 April 2014 for the second round.

Remarks

Please read this application detail simultaneously. Some courses may need to indicate the period of the study upon your request.

Coordinator

Mrs. Janjira Pengpreecha
Miss Korboon Petchrueangrong
International Relations Officer
Division of International Relations
Faculty of Medicine Siriraj Hospital
Mahidol University
Email: siro@mahidol.ac.th